

Message Received by Tomasz – 10th July 2021

Thus says the Lord:

- Convert, Poland! Convert, as the time of cleansing approaches!
- Convert, cities of the north; convert, villages and households, for the time of justice approaches.
- Convert, harbour and seaside towns, and towns who have grown at mouths of rivers, as the time of your existence is coming to an end. If you do not do that, noise of sea breakers will take your earthly lives!
- Convert, cities of the south; convert, villages and households, for the time of the truth and judgement on you approaches. If you do not do that, [then] when the earth shakes, you will die of earth and water, for the former will start disappearing under your feet and the latter will flow into the places where the former has collapsed.
- Convert, cities of the east; convert, villages and households, for a spectre of war destruction, homelessness and famine hangs over you. If, however, you do not convert, you will be dying, for even though you will take flight, you will not run away; even though you will cry out, people will not hear your voice, for they will turn away to save themselves. And on those days despair will fill up your hearts, lament will flow from your lips and you will call “Why didn’t we listen?!” but it will be too late.
- Convert, cities of the west; convert, villages and households, for if you do not do that, your breath will be removed from you and you will die, [and] your bodies will fall apart with no one to bury them. And at that time you will find no help, for anyone who approaches you will die of plague.
- Warsaw! O city who has risen on blood of martyrs; who has grown like a flower sprinkled by tears of suffering; who has heard children cry, seen despair of mothers and orphans. O city rebuilt by our forefathers to fulfill their dream of you becoming your nation’s stronghold of law and justice – it is on you that I call!

Desist from wickedness! Convert! Do penance!

For if you do not do that, your walls will be destroyed never to be rebuilt.

And there are seven admonishments with seven cups of bitterness that await you. You will keep drinking the cups until the last of your inhabitants leave your walls behind to wander in suffering, hunger and despair and to watch from afar your buildings of stone and steel crumble, and to weep over your fate and the fate of your children.

And these stones are never to be lifted again to restore your walls, for anyone who crosses the threshold of your remains will inevitably die.

- To those who convert, who take the road of the truth I promise: I will guide you out of the places of doom and destruction; I will save you and lead you to places of shelter.

For I am the good shepherd, and a good shepherd cares for his sheep.

I am the good shepherd, and a good shepherd calls his sheep by their names before he leads them. Therefore I have sent prophets among you so that they warn you by the time the announced verdicts are fulfilled.

For I am the good shepherd and I know my own and my own know me. And so they will know those whom I have sent as they will speak on My own and the word will move the hearts of the elect, for they will recognize the word and the word will be fulfilled. And when it is fulfilled, the sheep will follow the prophets, for they will take position ahead of them like a good shepherd takes position ahead of his flock to lead it to green pastures.

– And the days of the end will be like the days of Noah. As I chose the first witness, so I have chosen the second; as I chose the first Noah, so I have chosen the second. He will stand among you, and when the time comes – will shine. And he carries a spark of truth in his heart, for he received it from My heart and the light of My spirit enlightens him. He will light up the shade of time of the end, almost like a candlestick standing in the darkness lights up the shade. He will also give the light of the truth of My word for the whole world, he will impart hope, and confront the lie and the deceit preached at that time to lure you away from Me. He will guide My people from places of doom and will lead them to the threshold of the new earth. And at the same time he will also gather other sheepfolds when these sheep get to know the truth on the day of My Spirit.

– Therefore it will come to pass that there will be one flock on the new earth. Be careful, though, for it will not be the earth that you know but the one that I promised you, where the lion will graze together with the lamb. Take heed, therefore, righteous, good and faithful servants: time of joy is approaching. Let your hearts not fill not with fear but with joy, for a time of a great feast is ahead of you.

– Yet to those who will not listen – I declare: I will separate you from the righteous and I will deliver your bodies to destruction, for the time of admonishment with word is coming to an end. However, the evil and the suffering will be fulfilled not because of My anger, but because of hardness of your hearts. Not because of lack of My Mercy but because of your refusal to listen, because of pride and your baseness you will experience suffering.

– Let anyone with ears to hear listen – the time is nearing completion!